Coup Collapse in Viet Nam Due to U. S.

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. diplomatic sources said today the right-wing army coup in Laos had collapsed after one day. U.S. opposition to the coup apparently was a major factor.

"The situation is back where it was 36 hours ago," said an American diplomat who had been in contact with the U.S. Embassy in Vientiane, the Laotian capital.

He said reports were still sketchy, but that diplomatic dispatches from Vientiane said neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma had been released from house arrest and leaders of the coup had apologized for their attempt to topple the coalition government.

The dispatches said the rebel leaders also apologized to Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, right-wing leader in Laos, who was not linked to the coup.

There was no immediate information on the whereabouts of Souvanna, but he was believed in Vientiane, which was reported.

City Board Has a Full Slate Tonight

At the regular meeting of the City Board of Directors Monday night there will be representatives of two different groups with requests to build a community antenna for furnishing local television reception.

The City now has requests for this type of franchise from four different organizations. A group of local T.V. dealers and service men met with the Board of Directors at the April 6, meeting to voice their opposition to this idea.

Other items scheduled for discussion at the meeting are a review of bids on the construction of a sewage lagroon to serve the Proving Ground area, and representatives of the Park & Recreation Commission and the Little League baseball organization will appear for a discussion for assistance in providing Little League umpire.

A representative of the Pilgrim Feed Company is scheduled to appear to explain their plan for improving the obstruction to the public from their feed loading operations on North Hazel, and the Hope Auto Company has requested a loading zone in front of their property and 2nd street next to the railroad right-of-way.

The City Board of Directors meets at 8 p.m. on the first and third Monday of each month. These meeting dates are established by law and all are open to the public. The Board of Directors always welcome citizens to attend these meetings but, according to Mayor Frank Douglas, people seldom attend just out of curiosity or an interest in the doings of local government. He said, about the only people who ever attend are ones who attend in the interest of some particular question.

Johnson Plans Cutback in Nuclear Bombs

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson announced today a new cutback in the production of nuclear explosive materials and said Soviet Premier Khrushchev has indicated that he too "intends to make a move in the same direction."

Johnson said that the "substantial reduction" in the output of enriched uranium will be carried out over a four-year period. Together with other reductions, the new cut means "an over-all decrease in the production of plutonium by 20 per cent and of enriched uranium by 40 per cent."

"By bringing production in line with need, we reduce tension while maintaining all necessary power," he said in a speech prepared for The Associated Press luncheon in New York.

"I am happy to say," Johnson added, "that Chairman Khrushchev has now indicated to me that he intends to make a move in this same direction."

In a wide-ranging foreign policy speech, Johnson said: 1. The U.S. policy of trying to "isolate China" from the rest of the Western Hemisphere and defeat its efforts to spread communism "is working." Johnson said "we will continue this policy with every peaceful means at our command."

2. He has instructed the Cent.

Warm, Moist Air Flowing Over State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Warm, moist southerly air flowing over Arkansas is expected to bring more rainy weather to the state today and Tuesday.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said today a cloud bank develops each day over western Louisiana and southwestern Arkansas and spreads swiftly over the remainder of the state, producing scattered showers. The rain has been most numerous in western Arkansas.

High readings in the low to upper 80s were predicted for Tuesday, with overnight low readings mostly in the 60s.

Maximum readings Sunday ranged from 79 at Memphis to 88 at Harrison. Overnight low readings today were from 67 to 70 degrees.

The warm weather is expected to continue the entire week, with rain falling mostly over the north portion the first half of the week and over the remainder of the state during the second half.

KXAR Goes to 1,000 Watts

THIS WAS THE SCENE IN THE STUDIO OF KXAR at 12 noon today as the local radio station, 1490 k.c., went from 250 to 1,000 watts daytime power. Left to right: Mayor Frank Douglas; George T. Frazier of Roy Anderson Insurance Agency, Inc., former program director of the station; and KXAR General Manager Haskell Jones.

Senior Play Promises Fun, Laughs

The annual Hope High School senior play will be presented April 23-24 in the high school auditorium.

"Room and Board" is a clean, clever, fast-moving farce full of fun and laughs. Lora Ann Greenich Village recital. How and Mr. Don Mitchell, speech practice teacher, is assisting Mrs. B. B. McPherson, directors.

When a wild Beatnik poet descends on the Collins household at the invitation of their college age daughter, things are bound to happen. The neighbors are all excited and anxious to see his Greenwish Village recital. How he impresses his audience and gets involved with the law presents another side of the plot. There is a thread of romance running through the play and plenty of good, clean laughs.

The business committee, which will be canvassing the town the next few days for the sale of tickets, is headed by Cookie Jones, Charles Walker, Mack McLarty and assisted by Phala Brown, Becky Waller, Donna Ayers, Rose Ann Williams, Ann Arnold, and Joe Purvis.

Radio Station KXAR, 1490, which went on the air December 12, 1947, as a standard 250-watt day-and-nighter, switched to 1,000 watts today noon (Monday) for daytime broadcasting only. It will continue on 250 watts at night.

The expansion to fourfold power, authorized by the Federal Communications Commission April 17, was commemorated by a 10-minute program starting at the station studio at 11:50 a.m.

The program featured Mayor Frank Douglas; George T. Frazier, former KXAR program director who was the first voice heard over the station when it opened in 1947; and General Manager Haskell Jones. Mr. Douglas paid tribute to the station for its fine news and community service programs and good music.

As the commemoration program closed at 12 noon engineer Norman Bradford threw the switch and KXAR went to 1,000 watts. The first program heard on the higher power was the noon newscast sponsored by Hamm Tire & Appliance Co., with Jerry Westmoreland giving the news and Norman Bradford the commercial.

First report on effect of the 1,000 watts daytime power came from Bradley, Ark., 50 miles south almost on the Louisiana line. On 250 watts KXAR never got into Bradley with an acceptable signal. But at 12:05 this afternoon F. M. Cochran, Jr., of Cochran Hardware Co. said KXAR came in loud and clear.

He said he was listening to it on a small clock radio, and occasionally the Shreveport station on 1480 k.c. would "bite" into the Hope signal; but he added that this was probably due to deficiency in the receiver rather than to KXAR. The difference between the two frequencies is 10 k. c. and any fair receiver is supposed to separate stations that far apart. Mr. Cochran said there was no question but that the average radio listener today can pick up KXAR clearly in Bradley—which is a big advance for Hope far out in its fringe territory.

At Mt. Ida, nearly 90 miles north, the reception report was indecisive. With 250 watts KXAR is barely audible in sight of the Mt. Ida water tower. Regarding reception with today's 1,000 watts John Sperling of the Mt. Ida Cafe, operated by Sol Swindle & Son, said threatening weather and heavy static virtually wiped out all radio communication on the upper end of the standard broadcast band at Mt. Ida. He said he would try again Tuesday and telephone a report to Hope.

Another check point this afternoon was Malvern, 75 miles east. On 250 watts KXAR carried only as far as Friendship, between Arkadelphia and Malvern. But this afternoon an old Spring Hill resident, Arthur C. Anderson, former Hempstead county clerk who now runs the Aqua Motor Court in Malvern, gave this account:

"I had three persons check KXAR after the switch to 1,000 watts today. Two found the static too bad but the third receiving set picked up the station O.K. We will check again Tuesday and write you."

Obviously it was a poor day for radio reception throughout the area, with a heavy overcast and storm static in the air.

Some Progress Reported in Railway Talks

NEW YORK (AP)—A judge issued today a temporary restraining order, effective immediately, barring interference with all modes of transportation to the World's Fair, which opens Wednesday.

Justice Joseph M. Conroy of the Queens State Supreme Court signed the order, aimed at forestalling the planned stall-in by civil rights groups. Among those named in the order were Isiah Brunson, head of the Brooklyn chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality; Herbert Callender, head of the Bronx CORE; and Arnold Goldwag, public relations head of Brooklyn CORE.

The Brooklyn chapter has been suspended by the national CORE for its plans to tie up the city's transportation—subways, highways, commuter trains and tunnels—leading to the fair site in Flushing, Queens.

The show-cause order is returnable Thursday in Jamaica, Queens.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today federal mediators have reported to President Johnson "some definite gains" in emergency railroad bargaining talks aimed at averting a nationwide strike.

"However," said White House press secretary George Reddy, "there are some very difficult issues that still remain."

Leaders Hope for Vote on Rights Measure

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders are hoping for a first vote on the civil rights bill late this week.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager for the House-passed measure, wants a test on some of the 35 amendments on file.

"We've got a sit-in in the Senate by the filibusters," he said in an interview as the Senate headed into a seventh week of debate. "We should ask them to help conduct business in the proper and responsible manner we want demonstrators to follow."

Humphrey said he expects some voting Friday or Saturday.

There is no sign, though, that the 19 Southern senators opposed to the bill are ready to let up on their verbal protests against it.

For its 35th consecutive session on civil rights, the Senate was called in two hours early and expected to meet into the night, as was the case last week.

Humphrey hinted at round-the-clock sessions last week but made no advance effort to extend hours today. Both Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen have said they don't favor marathon sessions.

So far debate has been at a monotonous pace most days with a cheerful exchange of courtesies between opposing camps.

For example Mississippi's two senators, Democrats John Sten-

Group Enjoined From Blocking Route to Fair

NEW YORK (AP)—Plans for civil rights demonstrations on opening day of the World's Fair Wednesday now reportedly include a scheme to tie up most of the city's transportation system—subways, commuter trains and highway travel.

The "secret" plans, reported by newspapers today, could play havoc with travel in a city of eight million swelled by thousands of fair visitors.

President Johnson, scheduled to be an opening-day visitor, may get caught in the transportation snarl, one civil rights leader said.

Tactics reportedly being considered include pulling emergency cords on fair-bound trains, jamming ticket lines—without buying tickets—at fair entrances, or picketing the gates to dissuade fair visitors from entering.

Queens Dist. Atty. Frank O'Connor prepared to seek a temporary restraining order today against any traffic snafu at the fairgrounds. He invited demonstration leaders to meet with him today to discuss their highway-jam threat.

As the reported demonstration plans grew—from an auto stall-in on access roads to the fair to sit-ins, lie-ins and alike on other major highways, bridges and in tunnels throughout the city—reverberations sounded in Congress. Former President Harry S. Truman said the stalled calm. "The situation in Vientiane appears to be gradually reverting to what it was before," an American diplomat said.

In Bangkok, however, the newspaper Thai Rath said that after the report of the coup's collapse, Vientiane radio repeated Sunday's communiques from the military committee which staged Sunday's predawn coup.

Leonard Unger, U.S. ambassador to Laos, had brought pressure on Gen. Kouprasith Abhay, the anti-Communist career officer who led the army group that overthrew Souvanna's coalition.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who had been visiting South Viet Nam, said before leaving for Washington that the United States disapproved of the coup and feared it might upset the Geneva accord of 1962 which set up a coalition government for Laos.

Britain and France also came out in opposition to the coup.

The coup took place shortly after Souvanna returned from the Plaine des Jarres, where he had attended a summit meeting with the other leaders of the coalition. Gen Phoumi and Prince Souphanouvong, leader of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao and half brother of the premier.

Souvanna announced that the talks had failed to bring accord and that he would ask King Savang Vatthana to relieve him as premier.

The strike against Souvanna was launched by Kouprasith and 75 other officers, including 18 generals, who called themselves the "Committee of the National Army."

Ambassador Unger was in Saigon for talks with Rusk. Speeding back to Vientiane, he told Kouprasith the United States is "categorically opposed" to any seizure of power. He urged immediate release of all neutralists "as first step toward restoring the situation back to normal."

Miss Wright's 71 gave her a 54-hole total of 25, four strokes better than Shirley Englehorn and Gloria Armstrong.

The Spartanburg native for whom the tournament is named—Betsy Rawls—tied Sandra McCClinton for fourth place at 221.

Louisiana Pair Wins Tournament

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Two Louisiana State University students pulled into the lead with a second round 63 Sunday to win the Oil Belt Four-Ball Golf Tournament here with an 18 under par 195.

Higginbotham of Magnolia and Toxy Bourn of Haynesville, La., and Sam Spikes and Louis Henderson of Little Rock.

John Bell and Ben McCurry of El Dorado were fifth with 213, and last year's champions, Junie Dowell of Walnut Ridge and Tommy Stoubough of Pine Bluff finished sixth with 215.

Travelers Take First Double Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Travelers captured a baseball doubleheader from Portland Sunday on last inning home runs by Norm Gigon and Wayne Graham.

The score in the first game was 6-4 and it was 6-5 in the 10-inning nightcap.

Harry Oliver pitched one inning in the first game and six in the second and was the winning pitcher in both.

The Sunday triumph brought the Travelers to a 2-2 record. Portland won 6-4 Friday and 8-4 Saturday.

Portland led 4-2 as the Travelers came to bat in the eighth inning, but Adolph Phillips hit a grand-slam homer to put Arkansas ahead. The Beavers tied it up in the top of the ninth but Gigon smashed a two-run homer to sew it up.

In the second game Portland got all five runs in the third inning. Graham socked a two-run homer in the fifth to tie it up, then led off the bottom of the tenth with another to give the Travelers the victory.

Arkansas faces Seattle tonight at Little Rock with Len Clendenin (0-0) the probable Traveler starter.

Belgian Sees Easier Time in Marathon

BOSTON (AP)—Defender Aurele van den Driessche, the Belgian bookkeeper, expects an easier race in the 68th Boston A.A. Marathon today than he had in his upset victory a year ago.

"I know the course and there is less competition than last year," van den Driessche explained before the scheduled noon departure from suburban Hopkinton.

Exeter Street and the finish line in Boston lies 26 miles, 385 yards away. Temperatures in the upper 40s and clearing skies were forecast.

Van den Driessche's "less opposition" argument raises many an eyebrow in view of a record 396 entries, over 100 more than the previous mark of 287 in 1963. His reply is that more foreigners than usual have stayed away to concentrate on their preparations for the Tokyo Olympics.

Van den Driessche was pushed to a course record 2:18:58 clocking a year ago after 1960 Olympic champion Abebe Bikila did a surprising fold about five miles from the finish—about five miles from the finish of the way had to settle for fifth.

Maple Leafs Favorites to Take Title

TORONTO (AP)—The strong-finishing Toronto Maple Leafs were heavy favorites today to retain the Stanley Cup after blitzing the Detroit Red Wings Saturday night and squaring the final playoff series.

Toronto's 4-2 come-from-behind victory at Detroit evened the best-of-seven series at two games apiece. The fifth game will played here Tuesday, the sixth at Detroit on Thursday. The seventh—if necessary—will be at Toronto on Saturday.

Coach Punch Imlach used his Leafs like shock troops Saturday as he juggled his lines five times in the opening six minutes of play to throw the Detroit defense off stride. The Leafs dominated play throughout the first period with Detroit having an edge in the second, which ended 2-2.

It was in the third period that the Leafs showed their ability as stretch runners. Andy Bathgate, a late-season acquisition from the New York Rangers, broke loose and put Toronto ahead 3-2 at the 10:55 mark. The Wings then saw ever-dangerous Frank Mahovlich add the Leafs insurance goal at 18:07.

Play on for Curtis Cup Team

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Nancy Roth and Barbara Fay White, each with hopes of receiving a bid to represent the United States in Curtis Cup competition against the British team next September at Porthcawl, Wales, headed the opposing sides of the draw in the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament that opened today. Victory here would boost their chances considerably.

Miss Roth from Hollywood, Fla., begins defense of her title Tuesday. She and Miss White were among the six players in the field of 26 who received first-round byes. Others were Mrs. Ann Stranahan, Mrs. Helen Sigel Wilson, Mrs. H. S. Semple and Phillis (Tish) Preuss, member of the 1962 Curtis Cup team and runner-up here last spring.

Miss White, 23-year-old daughter of a Shreveport, La., golf pro, has won four of five Florida winter tournaments this year.

Mrs. Hotz was once chairman of the Home Economics Department at the university and her husband served as dean of the College of Education for 11 years.

Supporters and opponents of the civil rights bill in the Senate agreed that the public harassment could have an adverse effect on chances of passing the legislation.

Said Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager for the House-passed bill: "We'll be hearing from people who will be disgusted and outraged."

"I don't think civil wrongs help the cause of civil rights," Humphrey added.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., quarterbacking forces opposed to the bill, said in a separate interview that its passage under threat of violence and disobedience "would put us in the category of a 'banana republic'."

Technically, Stennis held the floor for more than 12 hours Friday simply by getting unanimous consent to yield to 50 other senators for speeches of varying lengths. Quorum calls occupied part of the time.

Eastland used the same tactics for a session of slightly more than five hours Saturday.

Most of Saturday fewer than six senators were on hand as Eastland read a long speech. Leaning at times on a stand on his desk, he talked slowly in tones so soft it was difficult to hear him from the galleries.

Johnson said such discussion must be responsible and in protecting U.S. security "parian politics must yield to national need."

Johnson declared that "so long as the Communist Chinese pursue conflict and preach violence there can be no easing of relationships."

4. If Congress cuts the proposed foreign aid program this year as it did last year the effect will be to "directly diminish the security of the United States" and Johnson will submit new requests for supplemental appropriations.

5. The United States is in the battle against communism in South Viet Nam as long as its help is wanted and its assistance needed. Johnson said "no negotiated settlement in Viet Nam is possible as long as the Communists hope to achieve victory by force."

6. In Western Europe "increased greatness and prosperity demand increased unity and partnership. A new generation is coming of age, unscarred by old hostilities or old ambitions, thinking of themselves and Europeans." Johnson did not mention his split with French President Charles de Gaulle, directly but pledged to continue working for European-North American partnership.

DAUGHTER OF SEN., MRS. FULBRIGHT WED IN CAPITAL

MRS. EDWARD THADDEUS FOOTE II

Miss Roberta Waugh Fulbright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Fulbright of Fayetteville, became the bride of Edward Thaddeus Foote II of Washington, D. C. Saturday afternoon. Father of the bride is the United States senator from Arkansas. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Walter Baumgarten of St. Louis and the late William Hamilton Foote of Milwaukee.

The exchange of wedding vows took place in the Bethlehem Chapel at the Washington Cathedral with the Rev. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Elmira, N.Y., officiating.

The bride entered the sanctuary with her father who gave her in marriage. She was given in off-white peau de soie fashioned in a princess line with a simple oval neckline and long sleeves which came to points over her hands. A misty veil was caught to a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of bourdia, butterfly orchids, and freesia.

Mrs. John L. Winnacker, the former Miss Elizabeth Fulbright, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were: Miss Ann Speck Baumgarten, St. Louis; Miss Lynden R. Breed, Washington; Miss Julia Foote, sister of the bridegroom of St. Louis; Mrs. Andrew Hodge, Vail, Ariz.; Miss Elizabeth Lowe, Washington; Miss Cecelia Jo Parrish, Menlo Park, Calif.; and Miss Letitia Stevenson Baumgarten, St. Louis. They were identically gowned in long dresses of printed silk in tones of blue and green on white.

Adlai S. Hardin Jr. of New York served as best man. Ushers were David E. Driscoll and Cameron P. Fordyce Jr., both of New York City; Edward B.

Greensfelder, St. Louis; Robert B. Semple, Alki Scopelitis, and William G. Ruddy, all of Washington; Michael Schomann, Shaker Heights, Ohio; Roger Anderson, Palos Verdes, Calif.; Eli S. Jacobs, New Haven; and James R. Pender, Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

A small reception was held following the wedding for families, members of the wedding party, and intimate friends.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fulbright chose a pale blue jacketed sheath. Mrs. Baumgarten wore pale green silk.

The bride received her education at Potomac School in Washington, St. Timothy's School, Stevenson, Md.; Wheaton College, and the University of California, Berkeley. Her husband is a graduate of John Burroughs School in St. Louis and Yale University. He is now studying for a career in law.

Briefly, here are a few other things to remember for your honeymoon. Don't set up a too-crowded program. Postpone your friends' parties for you until after your return. In this way, you'll be eased into marriage—unself—consciously, and you won't be tired for your wedding trip.

Don't boss your groom. Boredom can spell failure on a honeymoon. Newlyweds should realize that desire is bound to diminish after a few days, even among the most passionate and successful of lovers. So don't be upset if your mate wants to mingle with other people.

In sexual adjustment, don't expect to be expert at the first try. The sex act is a learned procedure. It may take as long as a year to work a satisfactory adjustment.

Finally, bear in mind that there probably never has been a perfect honeymoon. The wise bride realizes there may be foul weather, lumpy beds, a car break-down, or the discovery that her husband snores. It's all part of the thorny try-out period of marriage.

First Decathlon Planned Saturday

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas' first high school decathlon track meet will be held at Little Rock May 22-23 under the sponsorship of the Arkansas Athletic Association.

The meet will be held at Quigley Stadium with competition beginning at 1 p.m. each day. All eligible high school athletes may participate. The meet will have one division.

Events of the first day will be the 100-yard dash, the broad jump, the shot put, the high jump and the 44-yard dash. The 120-yard high hurdles, the discus, pole vault, triple jump and mile run are planned for the second day.

All events are the same as the olympic decathlon except that the triple jump is being held in place of the javelin which is no longer used in competition in Arkansas.

Some Progress

Continued From Page One Reedy said one of the mediators told him that the talks have now reached a stage "where to gain an inch is as difficult as it was to gain a foot a week ago."

Reedy said intensive talks will continue, with Johnson maintaining close liaison with the mediators.

Asked whether Johnson was satisfied with the report, made at about 10 p.m., Sunday, Reedy said: "Obviously the only thing that would be satisfactory is a settlement."

He said Johnson commended both sides "for the gains they have made, and urged them to re-double their efforts" to settle the five year long work rules dispute.

Johnson reportedly met with federal mediators and negotiators for both sides Sunday night for a report on the 10-day-old talks, which he hopes will avert a nationwide strike Saturday.

He had called for a report by today but apparently Sunday night's session covered the ground.

Negotiators for five unions and nearly 200 railroads are reported at a stage of practical horse-trading never before achieved in the five-year work rules dispute.

But one source, reflecting the uncertainty of the outcome, said "Nothing is buttoned up until everything is buttoned up."

Failure to reach some sort of agreement may result in a coast-to-coast rail strike at 12:01 a.m. (EST) Saturday.

The White House said the report to Johnson is expected early today before he leaves for New York to address The Associated Press annual luncheon.

Federal mediators, working under Johnson's orders, spent the weekend shuttling between union and management representatives in continued intensive efforts to close the gap separating the two sides.

Two private mediators called in by Johnson—Theodore Kheel and George Taylor—were reported pressing hard for the voluntary agreement the President wants.

"They haven't let up for a minute," said a source close to the top. Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz heads three government mediators also engaged in trying to bring the two sides together.

Guarded reports emanating from the secret bargaining sessions in the White House office building the past 10 days have fluctuated between tones of optimism and pessimism.

Indications are both sides view the negotiations as still in the formative stage, with Sunday's sessions approaching a highly critical phase.

Johnson, who asked for today's report, said at Saturday's session of the Arkansas Athletic Association.

The meet will be held at Quigley Stadium with competition beginning at 1 p.m. each day. All eligible high school athletes may participate. The meet will have one division.

Events of the first day will be the 100-yard dash, the broad jump, the shot put, the high jump and the 44-yard dash. The 120-yard high hurdles, the discus, pole vault, triple jump and mile run are planned for the second day.

All events are the same as the olympic decathlon except that the triple jump is being held in place of the javelin which is no longer used in competition in Arkansas.

Furniture Strike Is Ruled Illegal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals ruled today that a 1961 strike against Arkansas furniture manufacturer was illegal and tossed out union complaints of unfair labor practices.

The court ruled the United Furniture Workers of America, AFL-CIO, failed to notify federal mediators the union planned to demand negotiations for a new contract upon expiration of its contract with the Fort Smith Chair Co., June 1, 1961, and therefore the strike that resulted was illegal.

The court upheld the National Labor Relations Board in dismissing union complaints, after the strike ended Dec. 15, 1961, that strikers had been illegally discharged and the company had refused to bargain properly.

An NLRB trial examiner found these violations did occur, but the board overruled him, and declared that the strike was illegal because of failure to give proper notice as required by law.

"Once the contract is thrown out on the table for re-bargaining at the instance of one party, counter-proposals are normally forthcoming; and the course of bargaining frequently tends to become a dim and tangled thicket in which it is easier to sense the lurking threat of industrial strife than to see from which quarter it comes," the decision said, adding:

"Because this is the likely course of events once an initiative is taken to change a contract, and because Congress believed that it was imperative in the public interest for disinterested and expert third parties to have an opportunity to bring the parties together, the burden of giving the notices was, not unreasonably, placed on the party who voluntarily elects to put these events in train."

news conference, "There is nothing magic to that deadline."

But he had said earlier that he expected to know definitely by today whether the two sides could voluntarily settle their differences over wages, job classifications and working conditions.

The railroads say current work rules cost them some $600 million a year in unnecessary wages and jobs. The unions contend proposed changes would sharply cut salaries of many of the approximately 200,000 train operating employees and reduce manpower to a point jeopardizing safe operations of the trains.

Asked what he would do if the bargaining fails to produce a voluntary agreement, Johnson said: "I honestly don't know."

There are no provisions remaining in regular federal law under which Johnson could delay a strike beyond the voluntary 15-day postponement he won from both sides April 9.

One Nostalgia Trip in Every Family Group

By LOUIS MILLINER

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Eventually there comes a time when the children are considered old and strong enough to stand a trip to the places where their parents once lived and went to school.

My announcement of the 1963 vacation in remembrance of things past was not greeted with enthusiasm. One person's nostalgia is another's trauma.

Denis, 15, wanted to go to Mexico City and see, among other things, the mosaic murals at the University of Mexico library. Melissa, 13, wanted to visit cousins in St. Louis. Tommy, 8, wanted to go to New York and ride, ride, ride on the subway again. My wife, Gladys, had just as soon stay at home.

Father's plan was approved by a vote of 1-4 with father casting the only affirmative, but deciding, ballot.

So the car rolled northward to El Dorado, Ark., where Gladys once lived. The car wheeled through the city and then stopped. Was this the right street? But the house and the neighbors' houses had disappeared to become the site of a big motel.

Mother's high school was just a few blocks away. Looks just like a high school, the children said with unanimity rare for them.

Next to Hot Springs, Ark., now a motel metropolis, Father's house was still there but it brought forth no expression of awe. So we went by the high school. Again, it looked just like a high school.

So far, no runs, no hits, some errors.

The University of Illinois was the next stop. But once on the campus how do you point out a building once important to you when it has been torn down? Describe the huge trees which lined the Broadway when they have been replaced by younger and healthier but much smaller trees? Identify a building which wasn't there years ago but now has ivy?

The university library fortunately was in its accustomed place but it appeared the stained glass colophons were not as acceptable to Denis as mosaic murals.

"I still want to see Mexico City," said Denis.

"When are we going to St. Louis?" asked Melissa.

"Is it far from here to New York?" asked Tommy.

Two flat tires and 2,381 miles later I mentioned the trip to an old friend who had lived in Hot Springs when I did.

"I sometimes wonder," he mused, "if our children are impressed by the place where daddy grew up."

This year, The New York World's Fair by a 5-0 vote.

Population Shift Leaves Idle Church

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

LEEDS, England (AP)—Dr. Donald Coggan, archbishop of York, wants the Church of England to tear down some of its church buildings and use the money for missionary and welfare work at home and abroad.

Dr. Coggan said this could be done in many places, especially in some of the country villages where the churches are half empty because the bulk of the congregation has moved to the cities.

"It is wholly wrong," Dr. Coggan told a church congress here, "to spend money heating and maintaining up to five churches in village communities, half of which had moved away into the cities."

"The money should be spent on the evangelizing of England, or, more important, on the people overseas who are crying out for the gospel."

"I have noted that some villages have a parish priest and two or three churches, and a congregation only large enough to fill one of them. This represents a shameful waste of manpower and buildings."

"They should join together, pull down the buildings and move to the suburbs, sending the money saved to Africa, India and the Philippines."

Dr. Coggan also urged his the military draft, which also serves as a labor pool, says "there is panic among young men" because of it.

The exile, Angel Robaina, 18, said Wednesday he had escaped from a stadium in Oriente Province where 900 draft youths were concentrated.

Robaina was one of 48 refugees arriving in three boats Wednesday.

Last weekend 28 other youths who didn't want to be drafted arrived by boat.

The Castro government has said draftees will be used to harvest sugar cane and other crops.

A Choice of Assassins

THE STORY: In his pursuit of oblivion, Tony Malcolm goes to Domingo's tavern. Domingo and three companions, Clarke, Zarran and Paco are playing poker there. Pepe, the bartender, listens to Tony's lies about a turn in his luck.

VII

The sound confused Malcolm; it shattered his moment of peace. This was a bar, he realized, and he had come here to get something to drink. He felt fear in his throat and the need for liquor burning inside like a hot poker. The booming laughter had subsided abruptly, and he was grateful for that.

Malcolm waved desperately to Pepe, and said, "It's all true, everything I told you. They're sending me travelers' checks, and a bank draft I'll get my cameras back, and all my luggage." But he knew he was lying, and the knowledge drained him of all his strength. There was no job, nothing but the need for oblivion. He tried to laugh, but tears stung his cheeks. "I need a drink, Pepe," he said weakly. "Please don't say no. I've got to have a drink."

Pepe leaned cautiously toward

Church to do more for the welfare of foreign students who come here to study at universities.

"Many of them come from Christian backgrounds and it is up to us to see that they do not go back disillusioned and paganism by what they see in our cities and universities," he said.

"We should also guard these students and our own children from evil. Men and women of good will should protest to local bookshops against the sale of salacious literature. If the protests are ignored, these people should ban the shops."

Malcolm. "Go away, don't make trouble," he said.

"Deal the cards!" Domingo was shouting. The palm of his hand struck the table with the sound of a pistol shot, and a 10 peseta coin bounced at the impact and fell to the floor, where it rolled about in a little circle before tipping over and rattling to a stop on its side.

Zarran quickly dealt out the cards. Malcolm found himself staring at the coin on the floor. It had a hypnotic effect on him; it seemed to be winking suggestively at him. He rubbed his eyes and felt the tears on his hand.

Malcolm straightened himself with an effort. He walked unsteadily toward the glittering coin, unaware of Pepe's harshly whispered warning.

He knelt on the floor and picked up the coin with trembling fingers. The silence stretched tightly through the room as he held out his hand to Domingo, the coin shining purely, against the skin of his open palm. Everyone looked quickly away from Malcolm; no one wanted to be involved, even as a spectator, in this business.

In the thick, smothering silence, Malcolm's voice sounded almost blasphemous. "Please, may I have this? For a drink?"

Domingo turned his huge head slowly and stared at Malcolm, as if he couldn't quite believe what he was seeing.

Domingo's honest bewilderment was replaced by an anger which seemed to consume him close to him. With the other he caught Malcolm's shoulder in one huge hand, and jerked him close to him. With the other he snatched the coin from his trembling fingers.

"You pig, you rotten pig," he said, in a voice that shook with the need for violence. "I would not pay 10 pesetas to watch you shoot yourself."

With an almost careless sweep of his arm, he flung Malcolm aside, and then he turned back to the poker table, still burning with anger.

Malcolm raised himself to his knees.

"Domingo listen to me," he said, and there was something new in his voice then, a certain weary indifference, which caused the big Frenchman to turn and regard him with a puzzled frown.

"You want another lesson?" Domingo said at last.

"No, I've had my lesson," Malcolm said. "I only want you to listen. You said you wouldn't pay 10 pesetas to watch me shoot myself." He smiled faintly. "How much will you pay?"

"You're crazy," Domingo said, but after rubbing a hand over his mouth he put his cards down and shifted about in his chair to face Malcolm.

"No, I'm not crazy," Malcolm said. "I only want to make a bargain with you. I agree that 10 pesetas is probably too high. It's exorbitant, in fact. So let's try to find a fair price. Every human action must be worth something. How much is it worth to you? Eight pesetas? Five pesetas?" He laughed weakly at the excitement he could see in Domingo's narrowing eyes.

"I think we should play our cards," Clarke said.

"No, wait," Domingo said, looking intensely at Malcolm. "You're not crazy? But you'll kill yourself for a few pesetas?"

Malcolm closed his eyes and nodded his head slowly.

"All right, I'll make you an offer," Domingo said. He paused to take a cigar from his pocket, light it, and flip the match aside carelessly. Then he said, "It's worth a glass of wine to me. One glass of wine."

"Make it brandy," he said.

"All right then, brandy," he said.

"You've got a deal," Malcolm said.

Cuba Population at Record High

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuba's population was reported at a record high today despite a steady exodus of refugees.

The Cuban Economists Association in Exile said the birth rate has climbed so much that Cuba will have 7,700,000 inhabitants by late 1964.

Cuba's last census, in 1953, was 5,829,029. The figure was estimated at 7 million when Prime Minister Fidel Castro took over in 1959. More than 300,000 Cubans have gone into exile since then.

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP)—After two years and more than 60 programs, there are going to be some changes made in CBS' "The Nurses."

"We're going into our third year and it's getting tougher all the time," conceded executive producer Herbert Brodtkin. "We've covered a lot of subjects involving women. Now we've got to find a way to enlarge the show's platform and involve more people—mostly men—connected with the hospital."

The "larger platform" will be constructed even before the end of this season. One upcoming show, Brodtkin noted, will be a comedy—about a TV show about nurses.

The producer said that he believes that the television fad for "realistic drama" is just about over.

"CBS Reports" Wednesday night tackled a controversial, complicated subject: The economic, moral and ethical implications raised by recent British and American government reports linking cigarette smoking and disease.

The program traveled carefully and with fairness through all shades of opinion on the subject. The tobacco industry spokesmen had an opportunity to state its position as well as government officials, representatives of broadcasting, advertising, school authorities and students themselves.

The program could not, of course, offer any solution to the problem. But it did serve the purpose of opening up all sides of the controversy in an unemotional atmosphere.

Movies Taken Inside a Living Heart

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—A surgeon showed scenes from thrilling movies taken inside the living heart with a new internal periscope today.

The periscope is thrust down a blood vessel into dogs' hearts. There, it lights up the interior of the heart, and walls, to take movies. A heart specialist then can look through the tube to see what is going on and decide whether surgery is needed to make heart repairs.

An improved, flexible, instrument now is being built, said Walter J. Gamble of Children's Hospital in Boston.

If it proves safe in animal tests, it will be used to inspect the interior of human hearts. Dr. Gamble and Robert E. Innis of the American Optical Co., Southbridge, Mass., described the new instrument to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

Just as a periscope allows the captain of a submarine to see the sky above him, the internal periscope can probe into a body organ without surgery.

Dr. Gamble has taken slow-motion movies of the aortic valve, which opens and closes as the heart pumps blood out into the body. And he has movies of the inside of the right upper chamber of the dog heart, the right and left lower chambers, and the valve between the upper and lower chambers on the right side.

Two Organists for Price of One

Organist Bert Buhrman, who was to perform alone, fractured his right foot and needs Mrs. Buhrman, also an organist, beside him to manipulate the pedals.

Mrs. Buhrman will have to confine her playing to footwork. She smashed a finger in a car door while hurrying to pick up her husband when he fell, fracturing his foot.

Dr. Gamble said he had once had a peek at the aorta. In adults, inspection of that great artery might show whether it was affected by the "rust" that underlies heart attacks.

Dodgers Lose Again, Willie Hot for Giants

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Mays never sizzled so much even in his stickball days on the steaming streets of New York.

Right now, Mays is hotter than a hustler in the pool halls of New York.

The San Francisco slugger socked his sixth home run in six games Sunday and drove in three runs for a total of 13 in the Giants' 13-6 romp over Cincinnati. His three hits increased his batting average to .391.

The skyrocketing start is the best for the 32-year-old center fielder since he joined the Giants in 1951 the year he also started playing stickball with the kids in Harlem.

"I've had higher batting averages early in the season but nothing all around like this," Mays said after the game. "I can't explain it. I'm not even going to try. I'm just happy I'm playing the way I'm playing."

Mays, in fact, has a better record than the Los Angeles Dodgers as a team. The world champions have hit four homers and have scored 13 runs in compiling their worst start since arriving in Los Angeles in 1958.

The Dodgers dropped their fifth straight game Sunday, losing 3-2 to Milwaukee in 12 innings. Elsewhere in the league the New York Mets stopped Pittsburgh 6-0 for their first victory after four defeats, Philadelphia trounced Chicago 8-1 behind the hitting of rookie Richie Allen and St. Louis whipped Houston 6-1 as Bob Gibson hurled a four-hitter.

In the American League the New York Yankees won their first game, getting by previously undefeated Baltimore 5-3. Chicago blanked Boston 6-0, Kansas City defeated Washington 5-1 for its first triumph in a game out to six innings by rain and Minnesota and Detroit split a doubleheader, the Twins winning the first 12-3 and losing the second 3-1.

Rain knocked out the second game between Kansas City and Washington and the Los Angeles - Cleveland doubleheader.

Mays smashed his latest homer in the eighth inning against the Reds. His two-run single in the Giants' nine-run sixth helped put the game beyond Cincinnati's reach. He led off the inning with a walk.

The Dodgers, who haven't won since Sandy Koufax beat St. Louis in the opener, lost when Felipe Alou singled and Ed Mathews doubled him home in the 12th. Don Drysdale pitched perfect ball until the sixth and kept the Braves hitless through 6 1-3 innings. At that point Hank Aaron ignited a two-run rally with a double.

Los Angeles, now in the cellar, has scored only two runs in the last 23 innings.

Oklahoma City Wins Track Meet

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — Oklahoma City University captured 49 points here Saturday to win the college division of the Harding College Invitational track meet.

Benton was first in the high school division with 53 points. Seven records fell in each division.

Mississippi College was second in the college division with 32 points, followed by Arkansas State Teachers College 28; Hendrix 17; Harding 17; John Brown University 13; Henderson 11; Ouachita 10; Southeast Missouri State and Fort Worth Christian College 2.

Conway was second in the high school division with 32 points, followed by Harding Academy with 18, Searcy 14, DeWitt 10, Lonoke 9, Judsonia 8; Hughes 5; Hazen 4; Des Arc 4; Wynne 3; Beebe 3 and Bryant 2.

California Girl Queen of Swimmers

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
PITTSBURGH (AP)—If there are any doubts as to whether Donna deVarona is the queen of America's female swimmers, just check the results of the 1964 national AAU Women's Swimming and Diving Championships.

The attractive star of Coach George Haines' powerful Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club won the 200-yard and 400-yard individual medleys, the 200-yard butterfly and was runner-up by one-tenth of a second in the 100-yard butterfly.

If Miss deVarona is the queen then there are several princesses as can be noted by the fact that during the four-day meet last week American and championships records were set in each of the 14 swimming events. This was the first time American marks were established in all of the events.

A member of the 1960 Olympic team and America's greatest swimming hope in the upcoming Games, Miss deVarona scored 26 points and also was a member of both winning relay teams in this year's meet. She will be 17 years old in the near future. The average age of the approximately 250 entrants was 15½.

Asked why she entered the 200-yard butterfly Sunday night instead of the 200-backstroke, an event in which she had set the record last year, the cheerful Californian said:

"I like to try new events. Besides you can only enter four (excluding relays)."

Miss deVarona's competitors must be very thankful for the four-event rule.

While Donna was churning up the water in the University of Pittsburgh pool, Mrs. Barbara McAllister Talmage of the Dick Smith Swim Gym of Phoenix, Ariz., was doing all sorts of things — and doing them extremely well — in the air.

Mrs. Talmage won the platform diving—the first time it

Phil Rookie Is Off to a Running Start

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Heralded youngsters seldom live up to their great expectations in the major leagues but Richie Allen of the Philadelphia Phils is off and running toward National League Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

Allen a 22-year-old third baseman whose 5-foot-11 frame packs 185 pounds — with 44-inch shoulders and a 28-inch waist—hammered two home runs and a single to lead the first-place Phils to an 8-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs Sunday.

Almost a unanimous choice in pre-season polls, to be the league's top rookie Allen has a .429 average with three home runs seven runs-batted-in and 19 total bases.

"He's something, he's really something," said Manager Gene Mauch after the game. "He hardly strikes at all in the batters' box. His hands are so fast it's unbelievable. And he can hit them to any field."

Mauch tried to compare Allen to some great hitters and couldn't come up with an answer.

"He's all alone. He gets his hands into the ball like Ted Williams did but that's as close as I can come to his style."

"He's a pleasant mixture of man and kid," continued Mauch. "There's enough man in him to know what he's doing and enough kid in him so that he's wild-eyed about being in the major leagues."

And how does Allen, the Wampum, Pa., phenomenon react?

"I never tried to copy any one's style. My older brother always told me to swing like Dick Allen. All the publicity this spring didn't bother me. I just figured the sportswriters had to have something to write about. When the season started I just forgot all about it."

If anything, I'd say I'm not a spring hitter but rather a late starter. It's great to get off to a good start. I'll just keep swinging and see what happens."

Dodgers Are Off to Very Slow Start

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—You almost have to go back to the first Patterson-Liston fight to find a defending champion who got off to a less auspicious start than the Los Angeles Dodgers have this season.

In fact, it's about time someone suggested, a few weeks earlier than usual, that Dodger Manager Walter Alston will be issued a job-hunting license if his club doesn't soon improve its position, which today happens to be 10th.

That means the Dodgers have fallen behind the New York Mets, which is almost as hard as finishing 11th in the Big Ten.

"You mean nobody's written yet that I'm going to be fired?" Alston inquired Sunday after the Dodgers extended their losing streak to five games by blowing a 3-2 decision to the Milwaukee Braves in a dozen innings.

"Sometimes," Alston said, "you get 11 hits and 11 runs. This time we got 11 hits and two runs. Those things even out over the season."

The two runs to which Alston referred happen to be the only two the Dodgers have scored in their last 26 innings. That's an average of about two-thirds of a run per game.

The Dodgers were shut out the last five innings Friday night and came within an out of suffering a no-hit loss when they were beaten 3-0 by Cincinnati Saturday night.

Jim Maloney held the Dodgers hitless the first six innings Saturday, then had to retire because of a pulled muscle in his side. John Tsitouris took over and didn't give up a hit until Frank Howard dribbled a cheap single past the mound with two out in the Dodger ninth. It was the only hit the Dodgers got and Howard felt obliged to apologize for it later.

Yogi's Yanks Finally Get Victory Taste

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Manager Yogi Berra finally tasted the fruits of victory as the New York Yankees won their first game of the season Sunday after three straight extra-inning defeats.

A fellow with an entirely different taste in his mouth today must be Chuck Hinton, brilliant but erratic Washington outfielder and the goat of a 5-1 defeat by Kansas City.

After catching Jim Gentile fly with one out and the bases full in the fifth inning, Chuck headed for the dugout, thinking it was the third out. Nelson Mathews scored from third and Ed Charles from second as Hinton trotted toward the dugout, ball in hand.

Manager Gil Hodges, who frowns on sleeping on the ball field, replaced Hinton in left field with Ken Hunt in the next inning.

The Yankees handed Baltimore its first defeat in five games, 5-3, but the Orioles retained their hold on first place, as the second-place Minnesota Twins split a doubleheader with Detroit. The Twins won the opener 12-3 and Detroit took the second 3-1.

The Chicago White Sox blanked Boston 6-0. A scheduled doubleheader between Los Angeles and the Indians in Cleveland was postponed because of rain.

In the National League, Milwaukee nipped Los Angeles 3-2, San Francisco trounced Cincinnati 13-6, New York blanked Pittsburgh 6-0, Philadelphia

Renfrow Second at Kansas Meet

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — The University of Arkansas' Ed Renfrow placed second Saturday in the 120-yard high hurdles walloped Chicago 8-1 and St. Louis swept past Houston 6-1.

Sunday's defeat was the fourth in six games for the Senators but it is doubtful any of the previous losses ranked Hodges more. He had vowed the Senators would cut down their mental mistakes.

"We made too many fundamental mistakes last year," he said in spring training. "Too many times we gave the opposition another run. It's my job to see that we don't make the same mistakes this year."

Hinton can comfort himself in the knowledge that Joe DiMaggio was once guilty of a similar boner.

Orlando Pena permitted only two hits—triples Don Blasingame and Ed Brinkman—in the rain-shortened first game of a scheduled doubleheader, Kansas City's first victory of the season.

Joe Pepitone drove in two runs with his first hits of the season as Bud Daley became the first Yankee pitcher to post a triumph. Pepitone, who had failed to hit in 14 times at bat, singled home Mickey Mantle with what turned out to be the winning run, and doubled in Tom Tresh.

Celtics Capture 1st Playoff Game

BOSTON (AP) — Alex Hannum, San Francisco Warrior coach, says his team will be much tougher tonight the Celtics agree.

But Bill Russell and his Boston mates remain a 10-point favorite to make it two straight over Will Chamberlain and company in the best-of-seven final series of the National Basketball Association playoffs.

The Celtics beat San Francisco 108-96 Saturday night opening the bid for a sixth straight world title and seventh in eight years.

"We'll be ready this time—much tougher," Hannum said. "We were tired and not aggressive in the opener. And remember, that was only the first of a seven-game series."

"It's been our pattern all season. Whenever we played a bad game we always came back with a good one."

"San Francisco has got to be tougher in this second game," said Celtic Tommy Heinsohn. "I feel the Warriors weren't on their game Saturday because they weren't hitting from outside. I'm sure they'll be sharper."

at the Kansas Relays in Lawrence, Kan. Bobby May of Rice was first with a time of 14 seconds flat.

Used Toe to Dial, Report Robbery

American Red Party Dreams of Comeback

Editor's Note—The Communist party in the United States is sick, but still dreaming of a comeback. In the last of four articles on the state of the party today, an AP specialist tells of its hopes to seduce youth and capture the civil rights movement.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The Communist party of the United States dreams of a comeback for its desperately sick organization.

Gus Hall, current leader of a few thousand leftovers from the once - feared organization, appears to hope his party can zero in on two aspects of American life: youthful restlessness and the civil rights uproar.

Hall is believed planning a convention this summer, possibly in Chicago, to form a Marxist youth group—avoiding the label "Communist". The party, old and tired and plagued by defections, is desperate for young blood.

Since 1961, often using a discreet form of academic blackmail, the party has pushed a campus drive for recruits. Between 1961 and 1963, leading Communists made 91 speeches in 80 educational institutions across the country.

Apparently Hall felt this was successful enough to warrant an attempt to form a "Labor Youth League" under Mortimer Daniel (Danny) Rubin, the party's National Youth chairman.

How do Communist leaders get their student hearings? They send out offers to appear as speakers. If these are refused, they make a campus issue of it, accusing the institution of opposing free speech and academic freedom. It can cause enough fuss to work.

Registration Committee Holds Meet

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona won the Illinois presidential preference primary, but Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and other rivals cut up a large slice of the votes.

Charles H. Percy, who zoomed to a president's post in industry at 29, earned the Republican nomination for governor at the age of 44.

Returns from Tuesday's primary provided these percentages of the preference vote: Goldwater 41, Mrs. Smith 26, Henry Cabot Lodge 5 and Richard M. Nixon 2.

The remaining votes were scattered among others via write-ins. Sen. Smith's showing was surprising and much better than had been expected, especially when viewed in the light of her finish as a poor fifth in the March 13 primary in her neighboring state of New Hampshire.

Only the names of Sen. Goldwater and Sen. Smith were printed on the Republican ballots. Others scored by the write-in method on both party ballots, although the Lodge and Nixon boosters did not specifically seek write-ins.

Percy, now board chairman of the Bell & Howell Co., made a successful start in his first try for public office by defeating State Treasurer William J. Scott, 37.

The winner also took a first step toward control of the GOP in Illinois. The triumph, in addition, gave him a position of influence among delegates to the party's national convention in July.

"I'm going to cast my vote with the majority of the delegates, and I must concede right now it is a Goldwater delegation," Percy stated.

The result of the preference primary is not binding on delegates.

Goldwater commented in Washington that the outcome demonstrates that "1964 can be a year of victory for our party."

Goldwater, coming through ahead in his first test in the Midwest, called upon all members of the party "to unite to work for the election of Republican candidates everywhere, from the state house to the White House."

Returns from 7,672 of the state's 10,246 precincts gave Goldwater 314,544, Mrs. Smith 129,669, Lodge 26,545, Nixon 14,373, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 1,208, Gov. George Romney of Michigan 275, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania 992, and Harold E. Stassen 44.

Lodge won on write-ins—33,521 of them—in New Hampshire, where Mrs. Smith counted 2,812 on the ballot.

Returns from 3,126 precincts for the nomination for governor gave Percy 368,827 and Scott 223,124.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower running against two opponents in the 1956 primary, compiled 95 per cent of the preference vote. The late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, competing against two entrants on the ballot and three write-in opponents gathered 74 per cent in 1952.

Separate small groups sought write-ins for President Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for vice president.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Academy aftermath—

It's still quite a snow. For all the knocking and the ribbing it gets, the annual Oscar event remains a unique exhibit of glamor and professionalism.

The proceedings are formalized to a fault, and everyone gets weary of the parade of recipients with their effusion of thanks to all hands. But what would we do in their shoes?

The point is that the Academy Awards are a contest, a highly sophisticated competition. And Americans dearly love a race. That's why most of us sit through the dreary speeches and the limitless commercials to find out who is going to win the big prizes at the end.

That doesn't mean that Oscar gave Johnson 22,237 and Kennedy 363, and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama 115.

The Democrats had no major contests—a factor in the relatively light turnout of voters.

Greers Ferry Reservoir Rising Fast

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Writer

Massive Greers Ferry Reservoir is straining at its bonds, eager to start turning the giant hydroelectric turbines in Greers Ferry Dam next month.

The reservoir near Heber Springs has risen 22.8 feet in the past six weeks because of heavy rains and stands at an elevation of 447.9 feet above sea level.

Army Engineers are testing the turbines and will turn them on in May. The date has not been set, an Engineer spokesman in Little Rock said.

It will be the fourth set of turbines put to work generating power from the White River, which meanders across North and East Arkansas and joins the Arkansas River just west of the Mississippi.

The water at Greers Ferry is within 13 feet of the top of the power pool. There is little likelihood of it going over.

"It's like filling a V-shaped container," a spokesman said. "A little water raises the level a lot down low, but near the top, it takes a lot of water to raise it a foot."

Will the release of water through turbines push the White River up appreciably?

Engineers say no. "It won't have much effect on downstream water levels because the discharge of water through the turbines is in comparatively small amounts," the spokesman said.

Bull Shoals Dam releases 730 cubic feet of water a second through its turbines and Norfolk releases 1,040 cubic feet. That sounds like a lot of water, but it's a small amount comparatively.

Can Engineers control the water in the river?

To a degree. The dam is built for flood control and hydroelectric purposes. The discharge of water through turbines is a small amount compared to what might flow downriver if there were no flood control.

"We try to regulate the flow from the reservoir so it will be combined with the unregulated flow from other streams, such as the Buffalo, Strawberry, Eleven Point and Current rivers," Engineers say.

Three dams are on the White River, three on tributaries. Bull Shoals, Table Rock and Beaver dams on the White have turbines, but Beaver Dam's turbines won't go into operation for another year.

The turbines at Norfolk Dam on the North Fork River are at work. Clearwater Dam on the Black River in southeast Missouri is for flood control only.

Greers Ferry Dam on the Little Red River is the third tributary dam.

The power produced by the turbines goes to the Southwest Power Administration, which

Needs Help to Sex Hedgehogs

LONDON (AP) — The Henry Doubleday Association appealed sells it to electric co-operative organizations.

Engineers said residents downstream from Greers Ferry will notice little change in the way their river behaves. At present only enough water is going through the dam to maintain the stream flow because there is heavy runoff from uncontrolled tributaries.

When heavy rains come, water is stored in the reservoir to prevent downstream flood. When the danger passes, water is released so it will not exceed full bank stages downstream.

today for help in determining the sex of hedgehogs.

The association is a charitable group which seeks nonchemical ways to control pests. It wants to put 1,000 pairs of hedgehogs to breed in walled gardens to control slugs.

"But although hedgehogs are plentiful, we can't tell he from she," said Lawrence D. Hills, the association's secretary. He explained that as soon as a hedgehog is caught, it rolls up into a ball.

"This makes close examination difficult," he continued. "The only thing that can tell a female hedgehog is a male hedgehog," said Edmund Hallam, an authority on British mammals.
